Relationship Skills / Collaboration

For the month of April we will be focusing on the Relationship Skills. “Don’t reward your child for every act of helpfulness, such as clearing the dinner table. We should expect our kids to help around the house, with siblings, and with neighbors and only reward uncommon acts of kindness.”

Richard Weissbourd, a Harvard psychologist with the graduate school of education shares recommendations on “how to raise children to become caring, respectful and responsible adults. To learn more read, “Are you raising nice kids? A Harvard psychologist gives 5 ways to raise them to be kind.”

What is Young Writers' Camp?

Young Writers' Camp is a camp where students have opportunities to explore their interests in writing in small groups and to learn more about the craft of writing.

Who should attend Young Writers' Camp?

Students who love to write, who seek feedback and guidance on their work, and who seek creative outlets for their work should plan to attend.

Who teaches Young Writers' Camp?

Through a partnership with Texas State University, experienced Eanes teachers who have participated in the Central Texas Writing Project facilitate each session. Teachers are certified teacher consultants with the CTWP, a local site of the National Writing Project.

Workshop Descriptions

The Passion Project:

A passion project is something you work on that gives you satisfaction, happiness and puts you into a state of flow. It's what you do to escape it all. It's your tiny (or huge) contribution to the world. Join us as we explore topics we are passionate about and learn to connect those with our writing lives. We will also explore the world of TEDed Talks and bring our writing to life through mini TEDed sessions.

Instructors: Rebekah Ellis

EISD Teacher, National Writing Project Teacher Consultant

Imaginative Story Writing:

In this writer's workshop, everyone will begin by reading and studying collections of creative writing from well-known authors. You will then explore your own imagination to create short stories, poetry, comics, songs, or whatever your heart desires. You will also discover literary techniques to enhance your writing. As Voltaire once said, "Writing is the painting of the voice!"

Instructors: Kyndra Bowerman

EISD Teacher, National Writing Project Teacher Consultant

Central Texas Writing Project

Additional CTWP Young Writers' Camps are being held in San Marcos and Round Rock.
